PRESS RELEASE

HONOLULU—The Hawai'i Supreme Court has granted Honolulu attorney TROY R. EGAMI'S request to resign from the practice of law in lieu of discipline, effective July 13, 2000.

An attorney may resign from the practice of law in lieu of discipline by delivering to the Disciplinary Board an affidavit acknowledging that he or she knows that if disciplinary charges were predicated upon matters under investigation, or if formal disciplinary proceedings were prosecuted, he or she could not successfully defend himself or herself.

The Supreme Court's Order is public record. However, Egami's affidavit (which sets forth the factual allegations against him) remains confidential.

Resignation from the practice of law in lieu of discipline is akin to disbarment for all purposes under the Supreme Court Rules, including reinstatement.

Egami, 38, was admitted to the Hawai'i bar on October 21, 1988.

(A copy of the Supreme Court's Order Allowing Resignation in Lieu of Discipline is attached.)
