PRESS RELEASE

HONOLULU--The Supreme Court of Hawai'i granted former Maui attorney THOMAS P. GRISWOLD's request to resign from the practice of law in lieu of discipline effective December 2, 2003.

Resignation in lieu of discipline is a disbarment for all purposes under the Supreme Court Rules, including reinstatement. While the Order Allowing Resignation in Lieu of Discipline is a public record, the documents which set forth the factual and legal allegations against Griswold are confidential.

Griswold was previously suspended by the Supreme Court on June 23, 1999, due to his failure to cooperate with the Office of Disciplinary Counsel's investigations of his professional conduct in three cases.

Griswold, 51, was admitted to the Hawai'i bar in 1980. He is a graduate of Syracuse University. [A copy of the Supreme Court's Order Allowing Resignation in Lieu of Discipline is available upon request.]
