PRESS RELEASE

HONOLULU - ANTHONY P. LOCRRICCHIO was disbarred from the practice of law by the Hawai'i Supreme Court in its order issued October 18, 2016. The disbarment is effective November 18, 2016. Locricchio was disbarred for dishonesty, misappropriation, incompetence and other ethical violations. He was found to have had a dishonest or selfish motive when he disbursed $80,000 in disputed funds being held in trust. He disbursed $64,000 of those funds to himself and his wife. He was found to have filed multiple frivolous pleadings in the United States District Court. He also committed numerous aggravating factors, including: bad faith obstruction of the disciplinary proceeding, failing to appear at the disciplinary hearing, failing to acknowledge his wrongful conduct, indifference to restitution, and a pattern of misconduct.

The public is cautioned that Locricchio is now prohibited from accepting any new matters and must wind up and complete all pending matters until such time as he is granted reinstatement by order of the Hawai'i Supreme Court. Locricchio may not accept any
