

by the Hawaii Supreme Court itself depending upon the gravity and consequences of the breach.

In this case the facts and the breaches of the rules of conduct were agreed upon by Respondent Emmanuel G. Guerrero and the Office of Disciplinary Counsel and submitted to the Disciplinary Board along with a joint recommendation for the proposed sanction of a Public Reprimand.

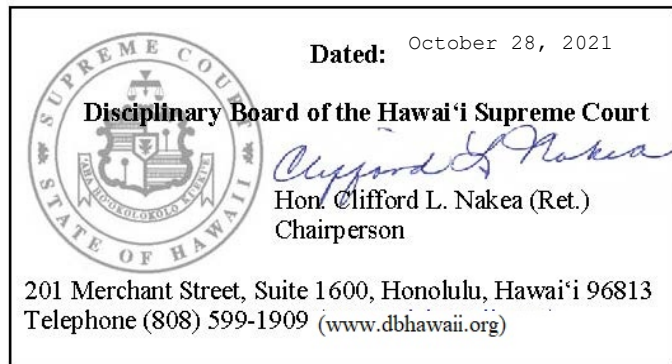

Emmanuel G. Guerrero admitted to violating Professional Conduct Rule 1.15(c) by removing unearned client funds from his client trust account.

He admitted to violating Supreme Court Rule 11(c) (1) (A), Professional Conduct Rule 1.15(a) and Rules Governing Trust Accounting 4(a) by co-mingling his funds with client funds in his client trust account.

He admitted to violating Professional Conduct Rule 1.15(d) by failing to deposit unearned retainer monies into his client trust account and by failing to provide proper accounting notice to his client.

He admitted to violating Professional Conduct Rules 1.15(a), 1.15(f) and Rules Governing Trust Accounting 4(c) by failing to maintain proper trust account records.

After weighing the stipulated facts establishing no harm to clients; the stipulated aggravating factors of past discipline, a pattern of multiple offense misconduct and substantial experience in the practice of law; and the stipulated mitigating factors of the no dishonest motive, full cooperation with the disciplinary process, an unattributable delay in the process created by COVID 19, and Respondent's expressions of remorse; the Disciplinary Board accepts and adopts the terms of the Settlement Agreement DBF 2 and, imposes hereby a PUBLIC REPRIMAND with conditions as stipulated.
