PRESS RELEASE

HONOLULU, HAWAI'I - On June 27, 2022, the Hawai'i Supreme Court suspended Honolulu attorney Craig K. Furusho from the practice of law due to his failure to cooperate with disciplinary authorities investigating misconduct allegations in three separate pending matters, and his failure to respond to the court's amended order to show cause in this proceeding.

Upon entry of the June 27, 2022 suspension order, Furusho shall not accept any new retainer, engage as attorney for another in any new case or legal matter of any nature and is required to promptly notify all clients, and any attorneys for any adverse party in any pending litigation, of his suspension and consequent inability to act as an attorney. Furusho is also required to surrender to all clients all papers and property to which the clients are entitled and any advance payments of fees that have not been earned.

Mr. Furusho was admitted to the Hawai'i bar in 1977, and is a graduate of the University of Denver, Sturm College of Law. If there are any questions, please contact me at (808) 469-4026.
