DISCIPLINARY BOARD OF THE HAWAI‘I SUPREME COURT

In Re:

MYLES S. BREINER, HI Bar No. 4364,

Respondent.

DB 22-9001

(ODC 17-O-116)

IMPOSITION OF A PUBLIC REPRIMAND BY THE DISCIPLINARY BOARD OF THE HAWAI‘I SUPREME COURT

A licensed attorney may not represent clients with adverse interests without “meaningful and informed consent” of each client obtained after a full and frank discussion and a written waiver that meets each of the stringent requirements of Rules 1.0 and 1.7 of the Hawaii Rules of Professional Conduct and their respective Comments.

You have stipulated and agreed that you have violated these requirements in connection with representation of Louis Kealoha, Katherine Kealoha, and others with competing interests.

Fortunately, in these instances, there appears to be little harm to your clients and presiding judges took ameliorating action to protect the potentially
