PRESS RELEASE

HONOLULU, HAWAI'I - On September 29, 2022, the Disciplinary Board of the Hawai'i Supreme Court imposed a Public Reprimand upon Honolulu attorney Myles S. Breiner for representing clients with concurrent conflicts of interest without obtaining a meaningful and informed consent after full and frank discussion and a written waiver of such concurrent conflict that met the stringent requirements of Rules 1.0 and 1.7 of the Hawai'i Rules of Professional Conduct. This discipline arose, in part, out of the January 25, 2017 findings and order of federal district court judge Derrick K. Watson in Franson et al., v. City and County of Honolulu, et al., 16-cv-00096, dkt. #69 (D. Haw.).

While this Public Reprimand does not prevent Mr. Breiner from continuing to practice law, it may result in more serious sanctions for future violations of the rules of professional conduct.

Mr. Breiner was admitted to the Hawai'i bar in 1987, and is a graduate of the University of San Francisco, School of Law. If there are any questions, please contact me at (808) 469-4026.

Case information: In re Myles S. Breiner, DB No. 22-9001.
