PRESS RELEASE

HONOLULU, HAWAI'I - - On March 27, 2024, the Hawai'i Supreme Court entered an order immediately and indefinitely suspending Honolulu attorney Nathan Yan Ho Dykstra from the practice of law in Hawai'i for his failure to cooperate with a pending disciplinary investigation.

While suspended, Dykstra is not permitted to engage as an attorney for any person or in any legal matter of any nature. Dykstra is also required to surrender to all clients all papers and property to which the clients are entitled and return any advance payments of fee that have not been earned.

Dykstra may not return to the practice of law in Hawai'i until he obtains a reinstatement order from the Hawai'i Supreme Court that he has demonstrated sufficient proof that he has cured the failure to cooperate with the Hawai'i disciplinary authorities.

If there are any questions, please contact me at (808) 469-4026 or bradley.r.tamm@dbhawaii.org.
